“ Beau became a student in my class when he was in 5th grade. I remember so well. Such a sweet quiet young man. His dad came and visited with me to check up on how he was doing in a new school and all. Such a sweet kid loved by his dad. Then, years later, we met again when he was working at a grocery store in Bridgeport. He told me about the loss of his dad but, about his engagement to sweet Carly Campasey. She had also been in my class as a young kid. I remember thinking about what great kids they were. I loved following their love story on Social media. I know I'm somewhat removed from their lives, but I'm so happy they had each other and that the next chapter will be total victory when they meet again in heaven with our Savior. Praying for comfort and indescribable healing for all family and friends.
