“ I became aquanited with Betty and Robert when I as around 8 or 9 years old when my mother, Teri White, went to work for Betty. Betty and Robert were always very accepting of myself and my siblings in her home She was also a hostess at my wedding shower in Jacksboro over sixteen years ago. Betty was always very thoughtful and willing to help any way she could. I know my mother and Betty had a close relationship in that they say each other everyday for many, many years. She will be missed by everyone in my family. My deepest sympathy goes out to Robert and Don and his family.
