

Beverly Ann (Black) Shoun

September 1, 1945 - October 5, 2023

Beverly Ann (Black) Shoun went to be with her Heavenly Father on Thursday, October 5, 2023, surrounded by her loving family.

Beverly was born to William James Black and Florence Almarine (Parsons) Black on September 1, 1945. She grew up in Jacksboro, Texas and graduated from Jacksboro High School in 1963. She and her husband James Shoun were united in marriage on August 15, 1964, in the First Baptist Church of Jacksboro.

She was a very devoted wife and mother and loved caring for her family. Beverly spent many years working in daycare. She loved children and they brought her much joy. Her mother established the first nursery for the First Baptist Church of Jacksboro and Beverly spent many years serving in the Church daycare. She could point out a child she cared for out of a crowd and immediately tell you how amazing and unique they were.

Beverly was a proud grandmother to her one and only granddaughter, Macon Joi. She was Macon's biggest cheerleader and found so much joy in watching her grow.

Beverly was a longtime member of the First Baptist Church of Jacksboro and was a Past Matron of Jacksboro Order of Eastern Star Chapter No 390 and also a Deputy Grand Matron in 2011-2012.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Bill and Almarine Black; her brother William (Bill) Black and her brother-in-law, Jimmy Williams.

Beverly is survived by her husband James Shoun; son Brent Shoun; daughter Brenda Shoun; son Brian Shoun; and granddaughter Macon Shoun. Also, her sisters Shirley Johnson and Lorraine Williams, and sister-in-law Barbara Black. Nephews Don Johnson, Ron Johnson, Eddy Williams, and Brad Black. Nieces Sheryl Wiles, Jennifer Williams Ansel, Belinda Black Clift, and several great nieces and nephews.

Visitation and services will be held on Tuesday, October 10, 2023, at First Baptist Church in Jacksboro, Texas. Visitation will start at 10:00 am with funeral services to follow at 11:00 am. Burial will follow at Oakwood Cemetery in Jacksboro, Texas.

“ Prayers for Beverly's family, she was a sweet friend for the short time she went to Graham schools, my memories fade away sometimes. But I believe we were in band together in 7th or 8th grade , I think she Worked at GMI in the 70's , it was fun to connect with her thru the years. We had some great times together. She will be missed by many, hugs for her family

“ Beverly was the baby of the family of four children. I was seven when mother brought her home from the hospital in a satin lined bassinet with net over the top. We all thought of her as a gift from GOD. She looked like an angel. An angel she was all her life serving and her Lord and Saviour. She loved children and has rocked many at day cares. She sacrificed many things to be the best wife and mother to her family. She was my best friend and always the one to cheer me up. We talked every day. I can see her laughing and in no pain in heaven. God's promise I'll see her again. I'll never forget her smile and glow in her face.

Lorraine Williams - October 07, 2023 at 04:03 PM

Beverly could always cheer you and make you feel better. With her gift of listening, she could calm and reassure you in the quietest of ways. I can hear her say, "Well, let's think about it." She was a beautiful friend. She will be missed.
