“ Bill was my boss for twelve years that I worked for The City of Highland Village, Tx. I’ve never had more respect for anyone that I have worked for and I looked up to him as a father figure. We all called him Mr. Bill , Bill because we were on a first name bases, Mr. for the respect that he so much deserved. He was a great person and I’m saddened by his death.

“ My great grandfather was man of many trades. Always found tinkering or building something new. I will forever miss watching him doze after a holiday meal with a toothpick sitting on his lips. I will miss you forever. Thank you for always being there. I love you.
