“ There are no words to express the sadness I feel now for your loss. When the pain of death becomes overwhelming, we can turn to God in prayer. The Bible tells us to "throw all of your anxieties on him, because he cares for you," (1 Peter 5:7). Take comfort in knowing that he loves us and that "one day he will wipe tears from our eyes, and that death will be no more,"(Isaiah 25:8). I hope this scripture gives you peace and endurance during this time of bereavement.

“ Adina and I were part of the Halliburton family before we realized that was a thing. Billy and I were specially connected because he was such a good athlete that our track coach used me to pace him when he trained for the 440 yard dash. Like being a sparring partner in boxing. I can remember him like it was yesterday, tall, tanned, and a great athlete.

“ You & I had some good times together from the day I moved to Jacksboro. Played football & ran track together. Graduated HS and lost track of each other, until we were reunited again in San Diego through the Navy. We lost track of each other, but we always seem to be reunited..we will be together again....waiting to see you again!
