“ sure am sorry for your loss, I rodeoed with Brad from 13 to 18 yrs of age. He was my best friend, sometimes only friend, he was a better friend than I could have asked for or deserved. The last time we talked he went on and on about how great his kids were and how he was blessed to have Becky for a wife. I was real proud of Brad and his family. Rest in peace Fudge.

“ It was a while ago. I seen a black & white crop out paint I just had to have standing in Brads lot. We started horse trading and by golly was I excited we got the deal done! I asked Brad, why does he have a brand on his back. He said I dont know, they said he came from Colorado. Well not too long I figured out just why he had that brand on his back! He was a Bucking horse that didnt make the cut! Lol. Brad laughed and laughed when I called him and asked him if he knew! That honery fart! He always had something funny to say. Rest in peace Brad

“ I started talking to Brad back about 2008, called him about some heifers he sold and from there bulls . After that anytime I had a question about bucking bulls etc, could call him and he would visit with me for the longest, letting me pick his brain, learning from him. Would send him videos sometimes of other guys bulls bucking they had sent me to help market them. Brad was always very up front and honest with his opinions about how the bull did. Always willing to help me figure out what a cow , bull or heifer was out of that came through his hands. He knew bucking bulls so well. I would always tell people that were new to the biz, call Brad and learn all you can and even find out what he had for sale. When he was sick in the fall and went to the hospital and they did the tests and he found out that he was going to have to take radiation, chemo, he called me, he knew I had went down that road with my leukemia. He wanted to know what to expect etc. Told him we have 2 different kinds of cancers, so the chemos would probably be different, but I did give him a run down of what to expect and how it could make him feel. Then when couldn't eat he called me, telling me Marcia they are going to put in a feeding tube, did you have one? Told him no that I didn't have, but told him what I knew about them. Explained to him how important nutrition is when you have any kind of cancer. Im so sad that he has passed on, hes with the lord now and that im happy about. The bucking bull world has lost one of the best bull men in the industry and he will be missed by so many. My heart hurts. Im praying for Becky , Caitlin and Ethan and all the family for the Lord to give them the strength to get through this and give them comfort. Caitlin, your an amazing young woman, so strong and I know how much you loved your dad and he loved you. He will always be with you, with all of you. He was always so proud of you. “ What a great bullman he was but a great person he was he would go out of his wY to help others I'm only 32 years old and I live in North Carolina and I've been in the bull business since 1997 and my success would not have been possible without brad fudge I bought my first set of bulls from him and established a great friendship with him he was willing to take the time to help a young man who was just getting started and didn't have a lot of money but that didn't matter to him he didn't care about the money he wanted to help someone succeed who loved the same business he did he would help you even if it cost him money and I know that for sure I bought a bull from Dwight frick to breed to and had a friend in Texas who was leaving the next morning to come back to NC and he said if you can get him to decater tx he would bring him back i made several attempts to other breeders and who came to help me brad did he left right then drove to fricks ranch got the bull and took him to decater tx he called me after he dropped the bull off I ask him what do I owe you he said nothing I may need something some day and need your help I said brad I'm 1800 miles from you he said I know it doesn't matter no good deed goes unpunished and with that said I knew what kind of man brad was. I know this is a difficult time for his family and me and my family will be praying for brads family with this said Becky if I can do anything for you don't hesitate to call I'm sorry for your loss the good lord needed a true bullman to help him and what a great man he choose agian I'm sorry for your loss
