“ "We will never forget the fond memories of Calvin. He was a one of the most fun people to be around. He was able to effortlessly make everyone else have a good time. My Heart breaks but I know that he would want us all to be strong. What a Great man he was always gave a helping hand or a Hug. My prayers and thoughts are with the HAND/ROBINSON/NOEY family. Love you Uncle Calvin.Until we meet again. Give Grandma and Grandpa Hand a big hug from us. Love ya Justin,Cindy Chance and Emma Hand

“ My childhood best friend is gone, but his memory and the mark he made on my life will live with me until I am gone. Calvin was the kind of friend that you don't come across often. We were two peas in a pod. Country boys doing country things, there wasn't much we wouldn't do or try. We had some wild rides and some scary ones but we made it through those teen age years, what a blast we had. No regrets and no turning back and if we had it to do all over again it would probably look the same. Rest in peace my friend, you will be missed!

“ I remember how Calvin used to braid his little Jodee's blond hair. Even French braiding as I recall. Not every daddy would have taken the care and patience to do that.
