“ I can't count the times that Dan helped me in my life. . Dan sold me the best mare I ever had and then taught me how to "cut" with her. Some of the best memories of my life are of me, Dan, and Mutt working our ponies in Dan's cutting pen. Other great times are in the pecan patch, yee hawing, each other. We will miss you cous. Until we meet again, pick a good horse for me.

DS

My favorite story of my uncle Dan is the one my mom told me as a child...One day uncle Dan and aunt Bonnie and mom were playing "church"...Dan took two small boards together (his Bible) and preached to his small congregation...
His sermon??? "All you women go to HELL!"
Bonnie and Billie ran over each other getting inside to tatttle on Dan for saying "a BAD WORD!" I can see it in my mind's eye!!! Always loved that story...I think because it made uncle Dan more REAL to me...Though he didn't talk much he always warmed my heart...just to see him...especially when he would smile! He was my MALE link to PA after Pa went to be with Jesus...I'll miss my uncle DAN!
