“ I am so sad. My eyes are filled with tears this morn. I just got word my beautiful, sweet, fun-loving, precious cousin Carolyn Hale Martin passed away yesterday. Carolyn had been recently diagnosed with cancer and had taken her third chemo treatment. She was doing well by all accounts. Many of you have been praying with me for her healing and yesterday she received it full measure. Many of my girlfriends have met Carolyn. She was the shop owner of Arbor Lane Interiors in Weatherford, where I've taken you or talked of taking you for shopping field trips and sharing fun times. I loved my cousin Carolyn! and her sweet sisters. We were without any doubt-cousins; we sounded alike (yes, you would have made fun of her like you do me); we resembled one another; we shared a fear of chickens-yes, its true: chickens! My Hale Cousin/Sisters were always so inviting and full of fun! They knew how to have a good time-those memories of times I spent with them flood my mind as I weep at the loss of more time spent with Carolyn; missed opportunities because life moves so fast! The regrets of circumstances that keep us from one another; too busy, distance... Yet, I do not sorrow as one without hope! I claim our Savior's promise that we will see each other again for eternity. We will stroll the golden streets together and laugh again, someday.
