Carroll was born July 27, 1940 in Jack County. She graduated from Bryson High School and then graduated from Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth. She taught elementary school for many years in Midland, Jacksboro, and Childress before retiring.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Alta and John Rudolph, her brother, John Rudolph, and sister Mary Rudolph Ward. She is survived by her husband, Jack Quisenberry, children, David Quisenberry and wife Kristine, Karen Rogers and husband John, Andy Easterling and wife Tammy, Alan Easterling and wife Kristi, grandchildren, Katie Greenwell and husband Scott, Leslie Strobel and husband Ryan, Kyle Rogers, Kendall Rogers, Grayson Easterling and Payton Easterling, great-granddaughter, Sarah Greenwell, sister, Jane Beck, nephew, Kevin Beck and wife, Nikki,

Carroll remarried in 1990 and moved to Childress. When Jack retired they relocated to the Tyler area. She loved her grandchildren and loved the time she spent with them as “Mimi” and “Grandma Carroll”. She enjoyed reading, working puzzles, bird watching, enjoyed the beautiful flowers in Jack’s garden, and playing 42 with family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to First Methodist Church of Bryson or Antelope Cemetery Association in memory of Carroll.

*Carroll was one of my son's favorite teachers in elem. school. She was a sweet & outstanding teacher!
Her grand-parents on the Smith side were my great- aunt & uncle (Dovie & George).
We will have a GRAND & JOYOUS reunion in Heaven someday!*
