

Carter Thornton

October 23, 1991 - October 9, 2015

Carter Thornton flew away to heaven on October 9, 2015. Carter was a rancher in Jack County, Texas and Roy, New Mexico. Carter was a 2010 and 4th generation graduate of Jacksboro High School. He received his Bachelor of Science from Texas Tech University in 2014.

Carter lived large and loved big. He had an infectious smile, always making people laugh. He was a true daredevil—simply dare him and it was done. Carter's last deed on this earth was to donate his organs. The lives he will extend are in for a fun ride!!

Carter is preceded in death by the best ever uncle Deward and aunt Bob Potts; his namesake great-aunt Jean Oliver; his grandfather Mike Thornton; great-grandparents Ercyle Strange Tipton, Loyce Strange, Worth and Della Mae Nelson and Irvin and Arlene Martin, great-aunt and uncle Joan and Joe Smith.

Among the many people who will cherish his memory include his parents Mike and Karen Thornton; brother Worth Thornton; his Moonga and Grandad Virginia and Robert Lee Martin; his Nana, Liz Jonas, his uncle, Keith Martin and wife Tamara; cousins Kayla Martin, Matt Smith, Leslie Kay Smith, Brian and Tammye Isbell and their children Seth and Wynn; great-aunt Dorothy Martin; two constant companions—his dogs Bud and Townes; and many other extended family members and friends.

There will be a visitation on Tuesday, October 13, 2015 from 6-8 pm at Coker Funeral Home in Jacksboro. Services will be Wednesday, October 14th at 2 pm at First United Methodist Church in Jacksboro with burial following at Barton Chapel Cemetery in Jack County under the direction of Coker Funeral Home.

Pallbearers include Bailey Francis, Hallie Bertrand, Gage Graybill, Korey Francis, Cal Francis, Kevin Thomas, Corey Banks and Kane Elenburg. Honorary pallbearers will be Keely Hamman, Mica Leonard, Sydney McCollum, Austin Murphy, Eric Franz, Braeden Mikeska, Tyler Batey, Chris Clark, Brayden Besselaar, Kyle Lawson, Clay McClure, Miles Maddox, Michael Lewis, Gunter Elenburg, Casey Spann, Trevor Vaughn, and Matt Castle.

“ Dr. Carruthers and I have been saddened by the news about Carter's passing. Too young, and having so much to offer the world around him..it is hard to accept. We both had the privilege of working with him while he was a student at Jacksboro High School. He was a very happy guy..and very respectful to me. The picture posted on this page captured the way I remembered him being all the time. May God's Spirit comfort you and give you strength to move through the days ahead, and supply wonderful memories to help soothe your broken hearts. With our deepest sympathies, Bob and Victoria Carruthers

“ *To the Thornton and Martin Families,
It has been an honor and a privilege to get to know Carter the past few years. Although I was the "big brother" of the Barton Chapel Crew and a late comer, I was always made to feel welcome, so I stuck around.*

I've got ten years on Carter and in a different stage in life, but none of that mattered to him, we always found common ground and enjoyed playing guitars and spinning some cool old vinyl records together. I'd give him sound adult advice and he'd promptly ignore it. And he taught me the proper way to move cattle in a chute with tall sides. "You got to move your hand over their face and along their back, maaaaan. Thats the trick!" I never had a little brother, but if I could pick one, it'd be him. He never failed to cheer me up when the chips were down. He had a plethora of friends (he'd laugh if he heard me say "plethora") spread far and wide, and if you were gonna roll with him, expect just about any and all to show up, and they usually did. One rule was required to be Carter's friend. Be friendly.

No matter what he did, or where he went, Carter would be Carter and Carter was just Carter, no matter what. We should all be more like that.

I'll miss you, friend.

*Love,
Matt*

“ We knew Carter as "Mr. Thornton" because that's who he was to our daughter. He was her student teacher in her Ag classes in Windthorst.
I don't think a day went by that she didn't come home talking about him (or his dog that he brought to class!). He had such a positive impact on her and all the students of WHS.

He definitely made the world a better place! Prayers for your comfort during this time.

“ I remember, when Carter was 12, taking the Methodist Youth Fellowship out to the Fort one Sunday evening, and having to tell him and Bailey to get the heck out of the creek- they were down there poking at water moccasins with sticks.

I remember, when he was 13 and 14, two Christmases in a row, asking him to read the Luke 2 story of Jesus' birth, because he had the presence and voice to do that and because I think that story is best read by a young person. Of course, he said "yes."

I remember, when he was 16(?), proudly driving the old pickup Aunt Bobbie had given him. He drove it as if he were driving a new Esplanade.

I remember, when Carter was 17, a rumor about bottle rockets, probably true.

I remember him and Casey pushing, always pushing at Scott and Laura with questions and comments in the Sunday School class they taught. Scott told me he loved that. I know they both did.

I remember an utterly decent young man, whatever mischief he may have been up to at the moment.

I remember all of you now- Mike, Karen, Worth, Robert Lee, Virginia, and so many others: it takes a great village to raise a kid. And Carter's village was- is- a great one.
