“ I wish I could come to viewing and service.
I was in a bad MVA and totaled my vehicle.
I will miss not seeing you playing with the Smoking Woodys. you're not replaceable in my book
You and Lori' both have a heart full of love towards other's. But Until we all are joined to play and sing together in paradise. You play on my friend
My love and prayers go out to the Henderson family.

“ Chuck Henderson was like a brother to me and Tim Champion and to most people who were blessed to call him their friend. He played bass with our band The Hippy Nuts for all of our Texas shows. Chuck was always ready to dig in and work on our tunes. He drove many miles to work with us and we were always tickled to see him show up in his yellow Hummer, smiling as he grabbed his bass and amp and headed to the stage. Not only was he a great musician, he was a philosopher and a sage who loved his family and friends deeply. Our hearts go out to all of Chuck's family, friends, fans, and bandmates. ❤️🙏🕊️🕋 Praying for peace and comfort. Much love from Kathena Bryant & Tim Champion (The Hippy Nuts).

“ Loria and the family, my heart goes out to all of you at this very sad time. Chuck was a great guy, happy go lucky and a good eye for a Cooperhead in the dark. After my husband met him the night they hooked up the camper, he told me he liked Loria's husband, he said he was one of "those good ole guys" that would do anything for anyone. Rest in Peace Chuck, you were truly loved and will always be missed.
