“ Dear Carolyn, Charla & Stacie

*I am really sorry to hear about Charles's passing. He was really a great person. He had such a great sense of humor, positive outlook and always a smile during the times he stayed @ FCH. He will be greatly missed. Know that each of you are in my thoughts and prayers during your time of sorrow.
God Bless you each,
LaDonna Brundige*

“ Charles was a fellow classmate, friend and neighbor and I remember him well. Always quiet, happy and pleasant to be around. He was one of my brothers'(Buddy Whatley) good friends and remained so through the years. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Carolyn, Staci, Charla Kay and family. I wish I had the ability to take away the sadness and pain you are going through right now. May you find peace and comfort knowing Charles is with his heavenly family and no longer hurting. He was a fine Christian man and you will miss him terrible. Cherish your memories.

“ My heart is heavy today but it should not be for Heaven gained a beautiful soul. I will FOREVER miss my Uncle Charles. I will miss our long talks, his laugh, the twinkle in his eyes, the scriptures he quoted and his unshakable faith. I was blessed to have such a wonderful man as my uncle and friend.
For Aunt Carolyn, Charla Kaye and Staci and grandchildren- I love you so much and I will pray for you all, that you may have peace and comfort in knowing that he finished his race and is singing with the angels. I wish I could be there but have prior obligations.
Love you all, Paula Jean
