

Sue (Hankins) Reynolds

July 3, 1942 - September 8, 2023

Charlotte Sue Reynolds, affectionately known as Meemee, went to be with her Heavenly Father on Friday, September 8, 2023, at the age of 81. Sue was born on July 3, 1942, in Bowie, Texas to Ila Faye Cozart-Hankins and Joe Burton Hankins.

A visitation will be held from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesday, September 12, 2023, at Coker Funeral Home in Jacksboro, Texas. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, September 13, 2023, at First Baptist Church in Jacksboro, Texas. Burial will follow at Elmwood Cemetery in Bowie, Texas.

At just the age of 14, she met the love of her life, Marvin Leon Reynolds Jr. They were married on July 9, 1961, at the First Baptist Church in Bowie, Texas, and were happily married until his passing in 2022. Sue and Marvin's love story was like none other, their dedication to one another, unconditional love, and resilience are examples that will live on in the lives of the people they touched and the families they leave behind.

Shortly after being married, they moved to Jacksboro, Texas in 1962 and became devoted members of the First Baptist Church in 1965. Members of First Baptist could always count on Marvin and Sue sitting in their back pew holding hands. Sue's heart overflowed with love for God's people. She was steadfast in her calling to serve the youth of Jacksboro through her volunteer work at the First Baptist Church nursery and 20-plus years of working at Jacksboro Elementary.

As a mother Sue would do anything she could for her children. From creating extravagant doll houses from cutouts of magazines, leading Girl Scout Troops, baking for every event, and holding them through their nightmares, she assured her kids had an abundance of care and love. Her devotion to care for her children was amplified through her love for her grandchildren. From sick days at Meme's to spending every holiday at her house, her family cherishes all the memories that she made special. Sue was also a longtime supporter of all Jacksboro ISD sporting events, usually having a child, grandchild, or great-grandchild playing. Rain or shine, cold or hot, you could always find her there rooting for the Tigers and Tigerettes until her health would not allow her to attend. Although she will be so missed, her family and friends find comfort in knowing she is back in the arms of her loving husband and holding her baby boy.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Marvin Leon Reynolds Jr., her son, Cody Joe Reynolds, and her parents; brothers in law, Jerry Richardson and Howard Reynolds.

Those left behind to cherish her memory are her children, Dondi Leonetta Sanders and husband Billy, Tina Tyann Ward and husband Mike, Marvin Leon (Trey) Reynolds III and wife Sandra, all from Jacksboro; grandchildren, Kizzie Sanders-Bogle and husband Ryan, Bo Ward and wife Windi, Chanz Sanders and wife Tyrissa, Blaze Mathis and husband Josh, Bailey Francis and husband Cal, Ranczy Johnson and husband Bubba, Trinity Reynolds, Teagan Reynolds, Tradyn Reynolds, Tessa Reynolds, Dominic Marquez & Elijah Reynolds and Lana Reynolds; great-grandchildren, Macie and Kylie Karnes, Collynz, Eazton, and Steele Sanders, Lilly, Tripp, and Mollie Francis, Bo Monroe and Penn Ward, Tula Belle Mathis; brother, Ronnie Hankins and wife

Jackie Sue Hankins; Sister in law, Patrica Richardson; brother in law, Roger Reynolds and wife Sandy; Sue is also survived by many extended family members, close friends, and neighbors.

“ Sue will forever be etched in my mind as one of my second mother figures. Her quiet ways, beautiful smile, and the way she made you know she truly loves you...people that come into your lives like that mean so much, even though your contact with them was many years ago while in your youth. Sue is the perfect example of the impact a person can make on a life Rest in peace and in the presence of family and friends and your Lord, my beautiful friend. We will surround your children with the love you showed us.

“ What a beautiful and fitting obituary for Sweet Sue!

I will always remember her beautiful smile and easy-going ways as she and Alice Hammond led our Girl Scout troop through many adventures including camping at Fort Richardson in the middle of a downpour and that infamous trip to Ruidoso! They were very brave to take all of us teenage girls that far away from home!

I loved Sue as did everyone who met her. I don't think she ever had an enemy and that can't be said of many people.

Dondi, Tina, and Trey - my prayers are with you during this time of grieving. May you find comfort in the many warm memories that you and others share of her. I love you all.

From meeting her at Fleming's Little Store, working with each other at JES, and continuing our friendship in later years, Sue was a strong, moral woman who was a lot of fun. There was no question as to how much she loved Marvin and her family. My life is better having known Sue and Marvin. Prayers will continue for the family in weeks and months to come. ❤️
