“ I only knew Cindy for 2 years. When I started work at FCH, she welcomed me as if she knew me many years. She was just as beautiful on the inside as a wonderful person as she was on the outside. I will certainly miss her smile, personality, kindness & of course her cooking at FCH. God bless each of her loved ones! RIP Cindy

There are really not enough words to express how Cindy will be missed. She was one of a kind, a very precious person and beautiful lady. Not many could ever hold a light to her. A very sweet friend and confidante. The hole she left is non-refillable. ❤️
