“ Uncle Wayne was an important part of my life; as a child he teased me and as an adult he offered encouragement and inspiration. I will miss so much about him-his oddball sense of humor, his contagious laugh, and his sense of family. My prayers are with others that share the loss.

“ Daddy, words cannot express how so very much I will miss you. It is so hard for me to accept that you are really gone. As a child I was such a daddy's girl and some will say that you spoiled me rotten but I would not take anything for those memories that I hold so dear. You inspired me to become a RN a title that you and I both share and understood how difficult that title was to achieve. You always taught me that honesty and hard work was the only way to get anywhere in life. I already miss you so much. My heart is breaking . I know that we will meet again and what a joyous reunion that will be. I love you Daddy

“ Thou McGee, blood does not flow through my veins I am a McGee and will always be a McGee. I love and will miss my father, this one man more than any other played a key and pivotal role in making me who I am today, dedicated, reliable, steady and steadfast in the face of turmoil. He had a unique sense of humor that could accost the sensitive that added to the humor and a laugh that well will be hard to forget. Thou we did not speak much over the years, the conversations we had in these later years spoke volumes to me. Simple conversations that meant so much, as a Soldier I salute you, may you pass with honor cradled and protected by the very colors we pledge to defend, and as you son may the Father in Heaven greet you will love and affection until we are all together again.
