“ Charlena and I grew up together until Ms Della and Mr Wig moved the family to Texas. Charlena and I were both young teenagers at the time. Eraina (Faye), was younger than we were. I vividly remember their sweet grandma, Nen. She could cook fish like no one else! She was my mom's bestfriend. I never met Lynn since he was born after the Texas move - if my memory serves me right. I am so thankful we are still in touch after all these years. God has gotten us through so much for which we are so very grateful. Charlena and Lynn, remember your mom is in Heaven with her son, daughter, mom, Kristi and Kayla. What a wonderful reunion which one day you too will join. To Him we give all the glory. May God's peace be with you all through this difficult time.

“ We will miss Mrs. Della when we visit the nursing home in Jacksboro. She was a very precious friend to our dear mother and brother while living in Jacksboro Healthcare Center. Our family has had many sweet visits with her, hearing about her family and loved ones. She is enjoying her time in Heaven with Jesus and all her family and friends over there!
