

Dennis Bennett

August 16, 1960 - February 28, 2019

Dennis Leroy Bennett was born on August 16, 1960 in Bowie, Texas to Leroy and Earlene (Shaw) Bennett. He passed away on Thursday February 28, 2019 in Jack County, Texas. He was 58 years old.

Dennis married Linda Green on July 23, 2005 in Devol, Oklahoma. They both had tragically lost their spouses and they made a life in Jacksboro serving in many capacities. Dennis was a member of First Baptist Church where he played the drums for the praise team, was a deacon, and a Sunday School teacher—one of his classes called him and Linda “Mom and Dad” because of the love and mutual admiration. An active member is inadequate to describe Dennis in his church. He was a genuine friend and dedicated worker for his Lord. He mentored, witnessed to, worked with and loved all. Everyone that knew him, knows he was greeted in heaven with a hearty “well done, good and faithful servant.” Dennis passionately loved his Lord Jesus Christ and it showed.

Dennis was an educator with an Advanced Master’s Degree. He was a coach, teacher, and superintendent. He served the community of Bellevue and ultimately in Jacksboro where he retired in 2016. After retirement he worked for E3 as a Business Development Manager. However, Dennis is not remembered as a superintendent or an educator in his career. He is remembered as a kind, compassionate, and knowledgeable coworker.

Someone that genuinely cared.

And, of course, the love he had for his family was immeasurable. He lit up the room talking about them. All of the them. Dennis put God first, then Linda and his family. He demonstrated true Christianity with his daily walk with Jesus. He will be missed.

Dennis is preceded in death by his first wife Beverly; his parents; and his grandparents.

Among those that will be eager to see him one day in heaven include his wife Linda; children Carly Barbee and husband Nelson, Colby Bennett and wife Kristen, Cason Bennett and wife Laura, Cortni Green-Wright, Brooklyn Green, and Morgyn Green; sister Donna Sue Neas, and his precious grandchildren Bennett, Wesley, Everly Brave, Everett, Adeline, Lyndi, Josie Ann and one more due in August.

If so desired memorials maybe given to:

“ I remember not long after Dennis & Linda married, they visited our church & gave their testimonies. Both had suffered the tragic loss of their former spouses, both had kids, yet both had been lonely for a companion. They had both prayed for God to send them somebody to love & fill the void in their life. They say God's timing is sufficient. They met & after a while they realized they were meant to be together. What a beautiful love story they shared. It brings me to tears that their romance was short lived. My heart goes out to you Linda & your family. May you always carry God's love & peace forever in your hearts. Dennis was a good man & will be missed by everyone who knew him.

God Bless You All,

“ Dennis was a man of honor and integrity. He was an excellent role model for all the students he came in contact with. He made the world a better place. Wish there were more men like Dennis. He will be missed by many people. My daughter Stormey attended Bellevue when Dennis was the Superintendent there and was in the same class as Cason. We hated to see them leave. Glad that Cason is back at Bellevue and following his Dad's footsteps. Karen Lee, CPA

My first meeting with Dennis was 2006 in Jacksboro as the company I was employed with was about to start a building campaign of new schools and remodeling of the old high school-what a pleasure it was to spend time with Dennis and I don't remember having a school Superintendent in my career that I couldn't get started working with for the next three years as his construction superintendent-needless to say we became very close in those three years because of his want to know inquisition and caring so much for his students and state of the arts design he was involved in-needless to say I could share many many stories I had with Dennis but I Pray you will recognize the love I had for Dennis and his family and Pray for them everyday-I am sure God,his family and friends have welcomed him into heaven and look forward to seeing him again one day
