“ My mother grew up with Dubrella. I remember her from my childhood. I have one of her recipes that was handed down. It says it is the funeral casserole. I plan to take it to a potluck on Sunday. She was always so sweet to me. Rest in peace, Dubrella. Jackie Whitt Dunsmore (Delvena Jackson Whitt's daughter).

“ I met Deubrella almost 50 years ago when I went to work at Spiller Law. I was a young naive kid who DB took under her wing and became a wonderful lifelong friend to me!!! She was an awesome cook, knew Jack County history and people like no other and never was afraid to voice her opinion! I loved her spunk, independence, and classy dress! She loved all of her family dearly and talked about always! Missed, but never forgotten!

“ It would be difficult to describe in a few short words, what Deubrella meant to me. I never remember life without that gal. With Dudley and I being in the same grade, Deubrella was always there to support not only Dudley but all of his classmates as well. And one of the things I loved most about her was that you always knew where you stood with this lady. If she didn't think that the cheerleaders were being fully supportive of the football team, she never hesitated to scream, “Do another yell, cheerleaders!” And somehow it could “almost” be received without causing insult or harm. We knew that Deubrella fiercely loved her Tiger Athletics. If we could present a “Tiger Fighting Heart” award to an individual that wasn't a JHS graduate..... well, it just might go to Deubrella Horton! Thanks for ALL of the memories Deu! I wish I had more space to tell hundreds more “Deubrella stories” She will certainly be missed but the memories will forever linger
