“ I am so very sorry for your loss. The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, he saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: "Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you." (Psalm 55:22) May these thoughts bring you a measure of comfort at this difficult time.

How I love this family. We we're blessed to growuo in such a close loving family. We go months and years not seeing each other but it's like our hearts stay so connected and I know it's all because we are all God loving people that has made us stay this way. May God be with each and everyone of you at this time. I love you all so.

“ I so loved Doris. I got to know her really well at the nursing home the past year and a half since my own mother is there. Saw her every day. She was always so sweet and pleasant and I enjoyed our conversations. She will be dearly missed, but I know she is walking those Heavenly streets of gold with her Jesus which we all aspire to do one sweet day for all eternity. God be with all the family and give them His peace that passes all understanding during this time of grief on earth. Love u all. In my thoughts and prayers. Love Darla Jackson

“ No matter where I saw Doris (Mawmaw) she always made me feel welcome and treated me like i was part of her family .I once went to the nursing home and walked in & there she was with some of the other residents inviting me to sit down and watch The Wheel Of Fortune..looked like they was having a big party and I think that is how she probably lived her life..I am so thankful to have known her and she makes me think of Proverbs 31:28 "her children arise and call her blessed" what a wonderful legacy she has left to all of you ..love to you all, Kathy Edmonson
