

Edward Dale Clark

June 7, 1946 - January 18, 2016

Edward Dale Clark, of Jacksboro, Texas, was born on June 7, 1946 to Wayne Edward and Ruby Irene (Walker) Clark in Olney, Texas. He was at home when he went to be with his Lord and Savior on Monday January 18, 2016. He was 69 years old.

Dale married Weneva Martin on Valentine's Day, 1978 in Megargel, Texas. He was self-employed with a pilot car business "His Pilot Car" before he retired. Dale was a member of Bethel Assembly of God Church but most of all a loving man of God, husband, father and friend.

He is preceded in death by his father, his father-in-law B. J. Martin and his granddaughter Launa Clark.

Among those who will cherish his memory include his wife Weneva Clark of Jacksboro; his mother Ruby Clark of Archer City; his children Eddie Clark of Jacksboro, Liza Rojas of Waxahachie, Terri Sweatman of Wichita Falls, Sheila Thrasher of Roanoke and Lynn Schmidt of Oak Leaf; sisters Barbara Geis of Archer City and Rhonda Terrel of DeLeon; 7 grandchildren and 1 soon to be great-granddaughter and many other extended family members and friends.

“ *My mom saw the obituary in the Star Telegram today. We are sorry to see that Dale has passed away. We used to know a Dale and Weneva Clark 30/40 years ago in Dallas. We attended the Kimball Free Methodist Church and we lived a couple of blocks from the Clark's. Over the years we have wondered What became of them. If you are those Clark's we'd like to reconnect.
