“ I worked with Max at John R Lindsey and loved him. He was a kind gentle soul. I would sit by him in briefings just to pester him or hear a story. He was in mobile and I would wait for him to come around so I could talk to him. Thoughts for the family.

“ So sad to hear of Edward's passing. He was such a kind, gentle spirit...He had such a sweet chuckle. Edward was one of the "good guys", and they are becoming more rare. Bless you, my friend.

“ Darlene and all the family, my sympathy to you in the loss of Edward. As I look back over the years of friendship with Edward and the family I am grateful for the many good memories and joyful times. My prayers are with you in your grief and I am praying for the service to be an honor to Ed's memory and to honor the Lord he served.

“Darlene, know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. When I heard this morning of Edward's passing I was so saddened and shocked. I will always remember when he would bake Christmas goodies for our family for Christmas. Both of you great friends and fellow brother and sister in Christ attending Live Oak Baptist Church. Know Edward, we will see you one day in Heaven....love darla jackson”

“ Growing up at Live Oak Baptist Church, I will never forget all the fun times all of us "kids" would have at Virgil & Margaret's house. Edward was always so much fun to be around. Many fond memories of our growing up together with all the Maxwell kids.
