“ Grace was the daughter of Myrtle (Moore) and Wate Risley. She was a life-long resident of Jacksboro, attending and graduating from Jacksboro High School.

Grace married Richard Hall, a WWII veteran, and a self employed business owner. They had two sons, Richard Hall Jr and Robert Lee Hall.

After Richard's death, Grace married Joe Clay, and they were Jacksboro residents until his passing.

Grace was a witty, kind, intelligent woman with many talents and abilities. She was an accomplished artist, a prolific genealogist, and an avid dancer. She loved to travel and had done so extensively.

She was a very special person, and she will be missed.

She would have been 94 years young on December 7, 2017. We will always miss and love you.
