“ Ethan and I used to go to school together. I remember in 6th grade during the Valentine's Day dance I didn't have anyone to dance with so he made me dance with him and we had an amazing night together. He was and is still the sweetest friend I could've asked for. I love and miss you dearly Ethan Joe 🕊️❤️

“ The many times Ethan knew I wasn't having a good and he was there for me and was a shoulder to cry on. He even found ways to put a smile on my face with he's goofy personality ❤️

“ He was a freshman when I started substitute teaching, and I learned right away that he was one of the kids I could ask for help when needed. I feel so fortunate to have had many opportunities to get to know Ethan and see firsthand what a remarkable young man he was. My heart hurts for his family and his many friends. To know Ethan was to love him, and his sweet nature and smiling face will be sorely missed.
