“ I learned today from Bill Dafcik that Everett had passed. What a loss of a walking coin encyclopedia as well as a good and decent man.

“ Everett was one of the really nice guys in numismatics. He was honest and kept his word. Her had taught school early in his life, but when the school district treated him unfairly, Everett said I'm going into the coin business full time. That was some 50+ years ago and it worked out just fine. Their loss; his gain. Bob Merrill

“ *Mr. Hull was not only a wonderful teacher and mentor, he was caring and interested in each of his students! He was absolutely one of the best teachers that Gary and I ever had at any level of our education! After 55 years, so many still remember him as their favorite teacher at Poly! He was one of a kind! “ Uncle Everett was always a character - always had a good joke (sometimes at my expense or his), larger than life personality and super smart. He knew a lot about a lot of things! Glad he's with Bret now!

I met Everett at a swim class in Mansfield. Honestly, it took me awhile to understand his humor, but I could readily see his intellect! He was a great man that you could ask anything and he knew something about it! I will miss him! Rest In Peace, Everett!!! ❤️❤️

“ *Here's to the memory of a remarkable man. He taught high school math at Polytechnic High school in the 60s. He served as mentor, motivator and friend. His wit and humor remained a part of him even in his senior years. He was my friend and I will miss him.
His natural abilities as a teacher left us totally prepared for college math. As a golf coach he excelled. As a living example of a class guy, there were none better. In school days we were always watching for examples of class and wit. Everett was all of that.
Rest in peace my friend. Roy Lowry “ Big E, I will always remember your kindness to Kevin and me and especially to Tammie, Billy, and Daniel. You played with them, encouraged them, and entertained them. You saw them in their teen years and into adulthood. You have invested your time with them and for that I am forever grateful. Thank you!
