“ Frances Butler was very special. My family met the Butlers at Victory Baptist Church in September of 1973 when Bro. Ed was transferred out to the Pacific Northwest. The North and South had a precious meeting that day. They took a young Christian couple under their wings and became our friends. We will miss you, Frances. We love and appreciate all of your family.

“ Mimi is in some of our favourite memories. Her mark on life was profound and good. She has lasting blessings because she was so gracious, worthy of her Faith in Jesus. Mimi was one of my favourite people - and she made a mean Lemon drizzle cake! The welcome she gave those of us from the U.K. at the wedding of Gloria and Duncan was so special.

We love all of you and stand with you at this time. its a privilege to know you all.
