“ I always thought the world of Francis, she was head strong and said exactly what she was thinking, never holding back. For that I always respected her. I loved working for her and enjoyed her motherly, you better listen attitude. She always was teaching someone something and many times they didn't even realize it, until long after they had time to stop and think about it & yes laugh. She will be greatly missed! Rest In Peace, great Lady.

“ A very special lady who was always ready to lend a helping hand. I remembered when my father passed away in 1969 she came to our house and offered to help. I had a dress to wear but it was too large. She took it home with her and altered it and brought it back same day. You just never forget kindness like that. Special prayers and sympathy to her family.
