“ I wish I could say something that would take away the pain of those closest to you Frankie. I'm so sure you would never want them to go through this immeasurable grief. Everyone there has my love and prayers.

As for how Frankie will be remembered by me: he inspired the biggest and longest belly laugh in history. Big enough to be remembered all my life. (and I had a real hard time laughing at all back then)

Thank you Frankie.

It is a very sad day here.

Again, I wish I could be there to help somehow--his wife, and family and friends. I could go on and on talking forever about how I wish you weren't having to deal with this and still never make my point enough. I just hope y'all know that I care.

*Love,
Naomi*

“ Brandon and Marlayna will always remember you as their uncle and I as your sister in law. Brandon spent alot of time with you in his early years. Our heart goes out to you Dallas and the rest of your family. It is my prayer that each of you will hold on to one another during your loss and remember God will guide you through this time of tragedy. May God give each of you much needed strength. Love Always
