“ Geneva, or Bug as I have known her, was a great lady. She always opened her home to me and my sons when we came to visit. I so enjoyed the visits I have had with her.

She will be remembered as a great lady and a kind person.

To the family:

We will truly miss Bug. Please know that she is not suffering now and that she sleeps until a time when God will bring her back to a world that will not be so torn by imperfection, crime and abuse.
