“ I remember during Dad's last days how faithful your parents were in visiting him. Mom said that he so enjoyed their visits. It was the ultimate expression of love from one brother to another. Our love to all of you during this time of loss but also our joy in this time of celebration.

“ *Dear Melanie,
You have shared with us how close you were to your Dad and our hearts breaks for you and your family. Through out his last battles, we saw just how hard you worked to find any and all things you could do to improve your father's health and to make his days full of all the persons and things he loved. What a demonstration of the wonderful bond between you both. We stand with you now as you lift up your father and rejoice in the blessing his life was to you and your family and we hold you close as you grieve the loss of such a blessed life.*

“ "Grandpa" George as I called him ALWAYS had a kind word a firm handshake and some good ole fashion wisdom for this city dweller. He taught me how to dig a well! A WELL! Something I would never thought I'd do. Every time I'd visit the property he was working. Tending to, repairing or building something. A sight to behold given that he was born in the 1930's.

I've always told Angie that he was one of the toughest men I knew and if I had HALF his gusto at that age I'd be a happy man.

I have never seen a man up and about, post surgery as fast as he was. WOW!

I personally will miss morning chats with him as he stopped to say hello when I visit.. I'm thankful for all the people that I've met in my lifetime .. Positive and not so positive.. "Grandpa" George is among the TOP of the positive..

Hope he sends a little bit of his moxy my way...

“ So saddened to hear of your loss. I have such wonderful memories of growing up with Melanie and staying at her house where there was always fun and of George coming home from work only to be bombarded with requests from us girls. George was always so sweet and loved his family dearly. Many prayers and may God bless you.

“ *Melanie and family,
George and I are so sad for your lost but rejoice in the fact that your Dad is with Jesus where there is no pain or sadness. Your father was always so supportive of Polly. I always appreciated that about him. I remember when before Herbie died, he was selling most of his shop equipment. Your Dad was like a child at Christmas trying to decide which tools or power equipment he would buy.*

Lamentations 3:22-26; 31-32

For the Lord does not abandon anyone forever. Though he brings grief, he also shows compassion according to the greatness of his unfailing love, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. I say to myself, “The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for him.” The Lord is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him; ...it is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord. Because of the Lord’s great love we are not consumed. (NLT)

“ I have many fond memories of playing at the Peyton Jones' residence on West Belknap Street with Angelique, Kristy and Melanie. Although I wasn't "family", Carla Beth Henderson Horton and I were treated as though we were. I will always remember George's beautiful and contagious smile. My thoughts and continued prayers are with all of you now.

“ Saddened to learn of your loss of George. Our Christian concern and prayers are with all of your family--many of whom we remember well from our childhood days in Jacksoro & Olney. Mary Lee was a graduating classmate of my wife's (Malta Evans Akins) in Olney and George and I were together all the way through Jacksboro schools and at North Texas Special love to their children and his sisters!
