

George Leek

November 4, 1917 - January 8, 2008

George Henry Leek was born on November 4, 1917 to Jesse Mask and Elentine (Huckabee) Leek in Newport, Texas. He passed away on Tuesday January 8, 2008 in Jacksboro, Texas. He was 90 years old. He lived most of his life in the community. He was a Air Force Corporal serving his country proudly in World War II and was discharged with honors. He married Leta Murl Reaves on October 8, 1941 in Waurika, Oklahoma. He was active in the community as he owned his own oilfield drilling company Circle G. Drilling and was an active member of Live Oak Baptist Church and the Masonic Lodge #320. He is preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife of 66 years Leta Leek; his two daughters Jeanette Carey of Prescott, Arizona and Teresa Stafford and husband Bobby of Wichita Falls, Texas; his son Donny Leek and wife Brenda of Big Spring, Texas; 7 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren; many other family members and friends. There will be a visitation on Thursday January 10, 2008 from 7:00 to 8:00pm at Coker Funeral Home in Jacksboro, Texas. Mr. Leek's service will be Friday January 11, 2008 at 10:00am at Live Oak Baptist Church in Jacksboro with burial to follow at Oakwood Cemetery. Pastor Craig Lile will be officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ George Leek

October 09, 2023 at 04:16 AM

“ George Leek

January 28, 2023 at 12:10 PM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Leek family. Our Sympathy,
Lynn and Barbara Clay

Barbara Clay - January 08, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ i love yall so much my prayers are with you. See ya two morrow

Love,
Brenda and Otis

brenda and otis skinner - January 08, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Our love and prayers are with you.

Fred & Rosemary Hellyer - January 08, 2008 at 12:00 AM