

Georgie Fae Jackson

November 30, 1926 - December 8, 2017

Georgie Fae Jackson was born in Clay County, Texas November 30, 1926 to George Elmer and Nina Georgia Kaltrider Fry. She married the Late James L. Jackson June 7, 1947 in Jacksboro, Texas. Georgie Fae worked for 8 years at the Herald Publishing Company. She was a charter member of Live Oak Baptist Church, Past Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and member of Faith Community Hospital Auxillary. Georgie Fae was known by many for her love of writing poetry, her cooking, especially her homemade pies, and visiting those who needed an encouraging word or smiling face. She will be missed by many. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband. She is survived today by her children, Barry N. Jackson, Darla S. Jackson and Marla G. Jackson-Bowland and James Bowland. Her brother, Claud Elmer Fry and wife Carol; sister, Helen M. Fry Conway; 3 grandchildren, Kelli, Jodi and husband Robert; and Holli; and 5 great grandchildren, Autumn, Avery, Cash Jackson and Blaze.

“ Georgie Fae was such a sweet Christian woman. I remember every time I saw her at church she always looked so pretty. She was always doing something for others, a role model for many young women. I got the pleasure of working with her in the hospital auxiliary. To her family, you have my deepest sympathy. Just remember....she's where she longed to be, in Heaven with her Lord & God.
