“ Greg West was what The Lord intended a vet to be. He was the kindest and most compassionate to his patients and more importantly their owners. What a sad, sad loss for the community and mankind. More than once he went far beyond his duty to see to the needs of my beloved pets and me. God bless you Greg

“ Greg will truly be missed by so many. He was a very smart man & so good at what he did. About 10 yrs ago my Pomeranian was expecting & he was taking care of her. When she was about due my husband's Mother passed away in West Texas. We took Prissy with us & on the way home at Breckenridge, she went into labor. I was so nervous since we were on the road. I called Greg & told him what was going on. He told me where to stop at Breckenridge because Prissy was having some problems. The vet there helped deliver the first puppy but he had emergency so we got on the road again. Greg called us about every 15 minutes trying to ease my mind. We made it to Jacksboro with four precious puppies. Greg checked them out that day. He was so awesome & genuinely cared about not only our baby dogs but our feelings as well. Now he is in heaven seeing after all of those animals! Our earthly loss but heaven's truly gained an angel...

“ Words cannot express the gratitude we have for Greg and Karen for the wonderful care they gave our pets throughout the years. Several years ago our little yorkie, Blaze had to spend the night for IV fluids. Greg assured me that she would not be staying in the clinic alone but rather in the bed with him and Karen. He said they had a nail in the wall above the bed to hang the IV bag and this was a common practice. Since that time Greg has taken care of several of our pets, some we took to him and some he came to see at the farm. Our hearts go out to Karen and family along with the clinic staff. Greg, we will never forget you. Henry and Buckley will miss your gentle touch and loving care. Joel and I will miss your kindness, friendship, wisdom, commitment, humor, and comforting words.

“ Our prayers go out to the West family. Our family was blessed to know him through his vet. clinic. He has treated several of our animals over the years. He also did a presentation for the 6th grade field day for Jack County school. The kids would get so excited about branding the cow. He left some good memories with the young people. He will be greatly missed.

“ I have such fond memories of Greg from our high school days. He was always such a gentleman and great friend. He was so polite and always treated me like a lady. I know his physical presence here on earth will be missed, but how lucky heaven is to gain such a wonderful man.

My love, thoughts, and prayers are with you Mr. and Mrs. West and his wife and girls as well.

Always helping our rescue, our own dogs, and helping homeless animals. The last dog Dr. West saved in a drainage ditch was sent to a rescue. This just shows how big his heart was. “ Greg touched my life deeply through his work. He is without a doubt the most caring vet that has ever worked for me. That was what had me continually return though the drive from my home was about an hour away. Eventually Karen and the kids became like family to us with us both sometimes leaving the girls to play while we ran errands. All the West family became "friends". I am simply heartbroken, as I know that anyone that Greg touched is. My prayers are with you, Karen and family. May you all be wrapped in God's grace in this time of need!

“ *The entire community, and more, is heartbroken. We have lost a champion for our animal families, for the ranching folks, for friends. Greg was like a drop of rain that lands into a pool of water...sending out concentric circles - waves that touch ever-widening circles of the people he came in contact with. We have lost a champion for our four legged and feathered family members, and a caring man that we will miss terribly. We ache for Karen and the rest of his family, including his Clinic family. I hope you are comforted by knowing how many people loved Greg. We must remember that the heartache of today will be replaced more and more with our memories that will warm our hearts. May God Bless all who grieve today....Good Bye, Dear Friend...thank you for sharing yourself with us... May there be plenty of fishing in Heaven for you!!!
