“ Leah and I are heartbroken to know that this world no longer has a Homer Grooms walking about and bringing joy, laughter, and happiness to all who encounter this great guy. Homer and I have been best friends since 2nd grade, were college roommates and shared the births of our firstborns together. He was a wonderful person who made the world a better place and shall be missed by all who were lucky enough to have known him. Our prayers and condolences to his terrific family....please know that we share your grief.

“ Homer was the most patient man, gave swimming lessons every summer and never gave up on any child. He was excited when they learned to swim and finally learned to put their face in the water, even if he wasn't the one to accomplish it. He gave his all to the community and with a smile on his face.

Prayers for the family.

“ Colleen, Perry, Terri and family, I am very sorry that you are having to say goodbye to this special man. Homer was truly one of a kind, and I feel certain the mold was thrown away when God blessed the world with him! What joy he brought to every life he touched, and no one could be around Homer very long without laughter. He had a special gift, a gift of joy, and how he loved to spread that delight with everyone. I believe Homer had true happiness and a glad heart. He cherished his family, and he relished life.

There are simply no words to ease the pain that you must feel in losing him in this earthly life, but just think of him as graduating into heaven, where he no doubt will be making that beautiful place even brighter, as only Homer could do. Please know how very much I care.

“ Homer was my first manager. He taught me so much about being a compassionate person and how to not get walked over as a woman in a man's world. That advice has been the best I ever got from anyone and it has carried me my entire career. I thought a lot of you, Homer. You were a very wise person and I thank you for sharing your knowledge with me, I should have listened more often, LOL! My heart breaks for your family, I know you will be missed by many. Rest easy my my friend.
