“ As 1 of 7 California cousins, I only got to know Ima Jean via own family, summer visits, which were most every year. As a child she was usually "happy go lucky" but I do remember times when things did not go her way, and Kenneth would usually be involved, she would react as if her world was ending, but it did not take long for her to back to her smiling self with the help of Mary Ann or her dad, Joe. When she was in CA some years ago with a grand-daughter, she was so excited to go to Hollywood. This past July 31st, at the Farris reunion, she was still just as excited to share all they did on that trip. Ima Jean was an personality that drew you to her and seemed to make thing "all right". She will be truely missed.

Thank you for sharing. The trip to Hollywood was with me, her daughter, Casandra. She was just as excited on that trip to see her "California cousins"

“ I can't believe only 6 short years have passed since my Mamaw passed away and now my Mom is gone too. I remember being so heartbroken over losing Mamaw and I had no idea the amount of pain my Mom, Aunt, and Uncle were going through compared to me. Now I understand and I wish I could turn back the hands of time. I love you Mom and you will always be missed. I just hope you are in the arms of your loved ones that went before you.
