“ I love you all and mourn with you. I remember many hours at your home in McGehee when we were all young. I loved playing dominoes with you, Dana Sue, and Cliff. You never took pity on me for being so much younger than the rest of you and made me earn every point I got! I will see you again one day, cousin! You fought the good fight!

You never met the beautiful daughter you left behind that we had after our divorce, born on August 12, 1976 in Monticello. You missed out on her life but your mother was classy enough to want to see and meet our beautiful child, whom I named Lindsay Michele. She carried your last name until I met my wonderful husband whom adopted her at age 7. It's sad your second daughter never got to met her half sister. Maybe she will look for her one day if she reads this.
