

Jerry Earl McGuire

February 7, 1936 - August 16, 2017

Jerry Earl McGuire, of Bowie, Texas, was born on February 7, 1936 to Miller and Roberta (Schultz) McGuire in Vernon, Texas. He passed away on Wednesday, August 16, 2017 in Jacksboro, Texas. He was 81 years old.

Jerry served his country proudly in the United States Army. He was a career military man serving across the world including the Vietnam War, for over 20 years. Jerry also owned his own business, obtained his pilot's license, and was a Minister. He had a heart for those in need always giving blankets, food, and coffee to the homeless, especially at Christmas. He was a loving and caring family man that will be missed dearly.

He is survived today by his children Ramona Bentley, Loreanne Kurtz, and Steve McGuire; brother Raymond McGuire; and grandchildren Wesley and Taylor Hall, James and John Kurtz, Elizabeth, Molly Mendee, Randy McGuire, and many great-grandchildren

A Memorial Service to be held at a later date,
