“ I remember one time when Connie, Jo, and I were on a short roadtrip, I fell asleep and when I woke up I said I hope I didn't bother you with my snoring and Jo said "Oh no your snoring didn't bother us but those poots were of yours were pretty bad." Well as you can imagine I was horrified and went to apologizing when she burst out laughing and we cracked up most of the way home! She was always a fun woman who was always accepting and loving. She lived a good life and raised a wonderful family full of love, character, and laughter. I know she was proud of you all and I am sorry for your loss. Love, Regina
