“ In Time of Sorrow:

May you see God's light on the path ahead when the road you walk is dark.

May you always hear, even in your hour of sorrow, the gentle singing of the lark.

When times are hard may hardness never turn your hardness to stone.

May you always remember when the shadows fall - You do not walk alone.

“ I loved Jack dearly, he was always ready to fuss and discuss any subject and honery as could be with a heart of gold and a soul that belonged to God. He had no fear of death he knew where he was going and told us so.

Jack made the best biscuits of anyone I know.

He will be sorely missed.

My prayers go out to Ann and all his family.
