“ So very sorry I missed the homegoing service for Aunt Juanita. She was a very special person. I know Don was there with all the others to greet her at heaven's gate. One of my fondest memories is when Don, Grant and I would come to Jacksboro to visit, we always went to her house, where she greeted us with love and for Don, a big plate of fresh tomatoes, which she and Don proceed to eat them all. May the family be comforted in knowing she fulfilled her purpose here on Earth. Keep the faith and do all she taught you. Much love, Cyndee Shields (Donald T Shields wife)

“ Grandmother/Greatgrandmother Juanita was a joy and inspiration for all of us. Her faith and prayers encouraged Alan to want to know the Lord better. She was always giving praise to the Lord for all the bountiful blessings in her life. ~ We are greatly comforted to know that Grandmother is with Jesus now,,, and we know that we will someday see her again in heaven. ~ God's grace to all the Calhoun family.
