

Kasey "KK" King

June 21, 1994 - April 25, 2009

VIEW VIDEO TRIBUTE PAGE Kasey May King was born on June 21, 1994 in Bedford, Texas to Kendall and Susan King. She went to be with her Lord whom she loved so dearly on Saturday April 25, 2009. She was 14 years old. Kasey or better known to all her friends and family as "KK" was a precious and beautiful young lady. The kind of friend and lady that was beautiful inside and out. She loved God and was such a Godly, kind and thoughtful Christian. She was truly a witness to all those that were fortunate enough to meet her. She adored and loved her family and friends dearly and they loved her back passionately. You just couldn't help but love this precious girl that God graced us all with. She enjoyed softball in high school and cheerleading. She however decided to give up cheerleading this next year because she had a passion and love for animals and her goal was to become a veterinarian and graduate from Texas A&M University with a degree in veterinary science. It was with much maturity and motivation that she gave up a love for cheerleading to dedicate herself more to her studies to achieve that goal. Kasey was the baby of the family of three beautiful and unique girls and she was the glue for their family with her happiness, her smile and her all-giving love. Kasey has been greeted in heaven by her Savior Jesus and her beloved grandparents that have already passed before her-Bobby Gilbert, Sr. and Jo Plunkett. Those that are left here to cherish her memory are her parents Kendall and Susan King of Jacksboro; her sisters Sarah and Meagan King of Jacksboro; her grandparents Don Ray King of Jacksboro, Lilly May West of Newport, Texas and George D. Plunkett of Weatherford; her aunts and uncles Donna and Jeff Graves of Jacksboro and Cathy and Greg Singletary and her four uncles Bobby Gilbert, Jr. of Arlington, Richard Gilbert of Denton, Daniel Plunkett and Bruce Gilbert of Fort Worth; and many other cousins, family members and dear friends. There will be a visitation on Tuesday April 28, 2009 from 6-7 pm at Coker Funeral Home in Jacksboro, Texas Services will be Wednesday morning at 10 am at First Baptist Church in Jacksboro, Texas with Craig Lile officiating. Burial will follow at Oakwood Cemetery. If so desired memorials may be made to the Youth Program at the church of your choice in memory of Kasey.

“ Kasey will never be missed. Jacksboro will not be the same without her. Kasey made a candle flame brighter, she made light come to the sky on a dark day. Kasey made everyone smile, made everyone laugh and get along. Jesus Christ Our Savior took Kasey home. He took her to heaven. I believe what God sent her here to do have been done and more. I'm sure she is indeed in heaven and God is standing next to her saying "Kasey you did well now it's time to come home." Megan she won't be mad at you ever. It isn't your fault God still has more for you to do. Kasey would want you to be happy. We didn't know each other but, I care for you like God cares for you. Know matter what God is with you through thick-in-thin. Through darkness and light. He loves you like he loves all his children. I'll pray for everyone in the King Family. Know matter what time of day. All the people in Jacksboro is. I'm sure of that.

“ King Family, I know not the words to say to ease your pain and as a parent myself I cannot image what you and your family are going through. I did not know Kasey but her story has touched my heart and I wanted to let you know. I have read all the stories of your beautiful daughter and heaven is rejoicing her homecoming. Please let me know if there is anything, I can do.

“ Everytime I think of Kasey, I smile. For Sarah, Meagan, and Kasey to have been so close as sisters, they were all so different, and yet so fun to have in class. Kasey loved to make people laugh, and she could usually cheer up the person who needed it. I am so glad I had the chance to have Kasey in my life for a year; she taught me to live life fully and be happy with who you are. To the King's, I am so sorry for your loss. As with others, my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ The hardest part is reviewing all the beautiful memorials that short week-end I spent with Kasey, those moments together, at the Cemetery and table game.... She was so loving and accepting, seeking acceptance from a stranger. She reminded me of my oldest granddaughter Cherish when she was that age. I fell in love with her almost instantly.

At this very moment in time, her funeral where a final tribute is in progress...

My heart was broken... I could feel the pain, the pain of those left behind.

“ Dear King Family

I just wanted to tell you how deeply sorry I am for your loss. I used to work at the City of Jacksboro and City of Weatherford and got to know Kendall. My grandson Brycen Mcgee is a Junior at Perrin High School and knew Kasey very well. He said she was a wonderful person with a sparkling personality and she will be missed. Your family is in our prayers.

“ I wanted to let you know how Kasey has touched our lives. My three children Katelyn, Allyson and Ryan all knew and loved Kasey. I remember her bright smile at football games where she would turn to the crowd see someone she knew and stick out her tongue, a memory I will always keep. My daughter Allyson and I decided she was like a shooting star, something you may only see once in your life and all too quickly gone. I would like to think everytime I am outside at night and the first stars are comming out that, that is Kasy looking down on her family and the many many friend she had.

“ Kendall and Susan,
Sara and Meagan,
Although I did not know Kasey well, I knew enough about her to know that EVERYONE she came in contact with was touched by her infectious optimism and hope she had in the Lord. I can't begin to imagine a loss as great as one of your children. My heart breaks for you, at the same time that I rejoice that she is in paradise as promised.

I have some understanding of what you are going through, having lost my little brother (38 y.o. at the time) on Oct. 1, 2004 in a drunk-driving accident. My older brother was with him but survived after weeks in intensive care. I know that your faith, like mine, will help you to avoid the trap of asking "Why?" Hopefully you see it simply as - she gets to be with the Lord a little sooner than we do. I'm so glad we put our trust in our Savior. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ We at Highlands Bank are a part of First National Bank of Jacksboro and receive the newspaper from Jacksboro. I was so sad to read about the accident. My brother went to be with the Lord at a young age and our son went two years ago, so we know the extent of the pain and sorrow. Although we know we will see them soon, nothing can fill the empty place they have left behind. May the Lord give you peace and strength. Special thoughts and prayers go out for Meagan.

“ Kasey was a bright spot in my day each and every day that I taught in Jacksboro. Never did she fail to greet me with a smile and it was obvious she had unbounding joy in her heart.

Not only was Kasey a joy to greet at the door, but she was a teacher's dream. It was obvious that she was serious about school and she always found herself at the top of my gradebook, never missing an assignment and always finishing the grading period with the highest marks of the class.

I have known the misfortune of losing a student or former student in each of my years of teaching, but none has brought such a heavy sense of sadness as that which I felt when I heard of Kasey's passing.

My prayers are with you, King family. God Bless you as I know he has and will continue to bless Kasey.

“ Dear Kendall, Susan, Sarah and Meagan: I can't even begin to imagine what you all are going through, but my heart is breaking just knowing the pain you must be feeling. I remember times in church and Sparks of all 3 girls and those great big wonderful smiles and their laughter. Susan, I think of all the times we talked and you would be talking about the girls your eyes twinkle and you would get the softest smile. Kendall, when I would ask you about the girls you would just have that grin that only Daddy's get when they think of their little girls. I found this poem and it pretty much sums up what I wanted to say to you:

Hugs From Heaven
by Charlotte Anselmo

*When you feel a gentle breeze
Caress you when you sigh
It's a hug sent from Heaven
From a loved one way up high.*

*If a soft and tender raindrop
Lands upon your nose
They've added a small kiss
As fragile as a rose.*

*If a song you hear fills you
With a feeling of sweet love
It's a hug sent from Heaven
From someone special up above.*

*If you awaken in the morning
To a bluebird's chirping song
It's music sent from Heaven
To cheer you all day long.*

*If tiny little snowflakes
Land upon your face*

*It's a hug sent from Heaven
Trimmed with Angel lace.*

*So keep the joy in your heart
If you're lonely my dear friend
Hugs that are sent from Heaven
A broken heart will mend.*

I hope this poem helps to ease even just a little of the pain. I love you all so much even though our paths hardly cross anymore, you are always in my heart. If you need me for anything I am only a call away.

“ Kasey, theres so much i could say about her. After knowing her for seven years, She has really touched my heart completely. She was one of my first Friends in Elementary. Shes always been the greatest erson to everone she has ever known. And i still cant belive shes not here. She was such a great person. We werent the best of friends, but we would always talk to eachother when i saw her. Last year is one of my best memories of her..We were both in the same theatre class and she is one of the people who really inspired me to get out there and act with my whole heart. I played basketball with her. And to be honest i totaly sucked. But kasey, she would always encourage me to do better, And help me when she could. Most of my other teammates would just get mad at me. She was one of those people who wasnt embarrassed by anything she did, and she loved to make people laugh. She had a smile that lit up the whole room. And im going to miss all of that very much. You are all in my prayers. And i am very sorry for you tragic loss. I love you kk.

“ Dear King Family, I am sorry. School will not be the same without her. She was the nicest person in our grade. She will be missed more than words can express.

“ Our very deepest sympathy on the loss of your beloved KK. We have watched your three precious girls grow and mature into lovely Christian young ladies, and the love of your family has touched so many lives.

May GOD's love, strength, courage and peace surround and abide in you at this time and the days to come.

We love you and want you to know we are here for you and will hold you up in our prayers.

“ No words can express how sorry we are for your loss. No words can make it better. Just know you are all loved; you are all thought of; and you are all prayed for by a whole community.
