

Kathy Westbrook

September 1, 1940 - December 21, 2007

Kathryn Louise "Kathy" Westbrook left here to go home to spend Christmas with her Lord on December 21, 2007 in Ft Worth, Texas at the Odyssey House Hospice at the 67 years of age. She was born in Spartanburg S.C. on September 1, 1940 to Ray and Nellie Smith. Kathy always seemed to be happy. Her family took priority in her life although she had a great variety of interests and talents. She had worked at many jobs and occupations during her life including bookkeeping but her favorite job was that of mother for her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren as well as being a great helpmate to her husband. No matter what activity her family participated in she supported them and was involved. Her role of mother wasn't fully contained in her family, because she loved and cared for everyone she knew. Kathy's nature was to help everyone. Her caring nature extended to animals as well, living on her ranch she was surrounded by livestock and pets that she loved. It has been rumored that she had a temper, but many of her friends dispute that report since most people never saw Kathy with out a smile unless she was getting after Odis. She was a member of Perrin Baptist Church. She has also been a member of the Sheriff's Posse Lady's Auxillary and Jack County Crime Watch. Kathy is survived by her husband of 49 years Odis Westbrook, son Billy Wayne Westbrook, daughter Melanie and son-in-law Darel Wilson, Grand children Kathy and Kietha Gulley, Justin Wilson, Wayne Westbrook, and Beth and grandson-in-law Phillip Aguado, Great grandchildren, Brian and Kortnie Gibney, Cashe Aguado and her sister Jo

Luncford and nephews as well as more friends than anyone would to count. Here is part of a poem that Kathy's friend, Sue Russell, hopes will bring comfort, Please love and keep each other As my father said to do For I can't count the blessings or The hope he has for you So have a merry Christmas And wipe away that tear Remember I am spending Christmas In heaven with Jesus this year There will be a visitation on Wednesday evening December 26, 2006 from 7:00 to 8:00 pm at Coker Funeral Home in Jacksboro. Services will be Thursday afternoon at 2:00pm at the First Baptist Church in Perrin with burial to follow at Gibtown Cemetery in Gibtown. Bro. Mark Sims will be officiating with the Sheriff's Posse Members as pallbearers.
