

Kenneth Ray Hunter

September 22, 1937 - July 3, 2013

Kenneth Ray Hunter was born on Wednesday September 22, 1937 to Joe Harvey and Ruby Josephine (Morris) Hunter in Mount Pleasant, Texas. He passed away on Wednesday July 3, 2013 in Weatherford, Texas. He was 75 years old.

Kenneth married Margie Lou Roberts on September 13, 1968 in Ingram, Texas. He spent his life serving his country in the United States Air Force including serving in the Vietnam War. He retired from the Air Force as a Tech Sergeant, something he was very proud of.

He is survived today by his wife Margie Hunter, son Kelly Hunter and wife Melissa, brothers Mike and Jackie Hunter, sisters Bobbye Smith and Doris Hunter and grandchildren Bayleigh and Savanna Hunter and many more extended family members and friends who were grateful for his loyal service to his country.

Hello there ..so sorry for the loss of your beloved Ken, though the years have passed since God took his hand I'm sure it's like yesterday that you can see and hear his sweet voice 💖 he sounded like a beautiful strong man! I found my way here actually looking for a K.R. Hunter for a gentlemen who was looking for that name who possibly owned a 1968 ford that he is niw in possession of..if Ken's family or friends know if your dear Ken owned the car I'm sure the gentleman would love to hear from you..again sorry for your loss and I'm sorry if this post was inappropriate. Sending our deepest condolences and sympathies too Ken's family and friends 💖

“ We will miss Ken so very much. He was a wonderful caring man who loved his family greatly. We feel blessed to have been a part of the family and so enjoyed all the times we spent together. Ken made us laugh, and smile, and showed love to all those around him. We feel we have a special guardian angel in heaven now.
All our Love,
James and Kerry Kniese
