“ There are no words to express the sadness I feel now for your loss. When the pain of death becomes overwhelming, we can turn to God in prayer. The Bible tells us to "throw all of your anxieties on him, because he cares for you," (1 Peter 5:7). Take comfort in knowing that he loves us and that "one day he will wipe tears from our eyes, and that death will be no more,"(Isaiah 25:8). I hope this scripture gives you peace and endurance during this time of bereavement.

“ Mom was women of grace, love and compassion. She was elegant and stylish. Always carried herself as a lady. She was a godly woman that covered her family and friends with prayer. Her battle with cancer was unexpected and short. Our hearts weren't ready but God was. I know my Daddy was at the gates waiting to meet her. I know she is rocking my little one and Devin's daughter and laughing with my husband Ed. I miss her and will always remember the legacy of love for God and family.

We know she is waiting for us in heaven, where we will have our big Long family reunion one day. Until then, we will carry on, loving one another and making more memories to cherish, and always have her in our heart.*

I will miss LaNell, she was my Cousin, but also a great friend. You will be missed by many friends as well as family. I'm glad you are no longer in pain. It makes me smile, knowing that you are having a great reunion with Wayne, Aunt Lillie, Uncle Orville, Junior, Pam, my mom and many others who have gone on before us. Praying for Devin, Kristie, Lindy, Faye and all the family. May God give you comfort for the days ahead.
