“ My Aunt Leola was a wonderful lady! I did not see her that many times in my life; but when we did visit, she made quite an impression on me. She welcomed our family into her home and made us feel very welcome. I have such wonderful memories of those times! I am especially glad I got to visit with her last summer. A very gracious lady with a wonderful family. So sorry we can not be with you tomorrow, but you all will be in our thoughts. May your memories bring you peace and knowing she is with her loved ones bring you comfort. Love to all the family, Janie (Sanford) & Phil Hill

“ My mother was the Rock of our family. Even though she was 92 1/2 years old, each one of us kids "jumped" when she said jump! She is deeply loved and will be sorely missed, but we have our hope in JESUS, and know that she is finally happy walking, running, and jumping down the streets of gold with our sweet daddy. She will be saving us a place near her. Please continue your prayers for our family; we miss her so much.
