“ Growing up, I thought I had the worst parents as far as strictness. Do this, dont do this, church at minimum 3 times a week. Other kids were allowed to go places, do things, etc. Now at 46, I am theworst parent if you ask one of mine. I did alot of things I am not proud of, but made amends to you in my late 20's. Raising 1 boy was tough I am sure. I have 2 one of which is following my footsteps. And we parent as we were raised. I am thankful for your prayers, love and patience. I love you daddy.

“ Shirley, I am so sorry to hear about Lester Paul, and I was thinking about how he and Doyle must be kicking up their heels, and praising the Lord, and waiting for the rest of us there. I pray that you and family have the greatest blessings in your love for Him, and you and Lester Pauls love and devotion together. We are all so blessed to know our heavenly father, and to have Him watching over us every day. God Bless you. Shirley Armstrong

“ I know Paul will be greatly missed but he is rejoicing and praising God now. I remember Paul leading the worship services at church and how he let the Holy Spirit flow through him as he worshiped. It was great to be in a song and worship service with him because he was truly anointed as he led the service.

“ I was so sorry to learn of Paul's death. What a tremendous loss for this world and great gain for heaven! With deepest respect for Paul's life, as well as gratitude for his friendship, I send my sincerest sympathy to the family. Paul has been a man of integrity and a genuine faith, and an example to so many through his life and in his dealings with others.

With prayers and affection,

“ Paul King was the finest Christian man I have ever known. I grew up across the street from his family and have always considered him as part of our family. He will be greatly missed by all who have had the priviledge to know and love him.
