

Louise Schlittler

April 21, 1921 - August 27, 2013

Ola Louise Schlittler, 92, of Edmond, OK, died Tuesday, August 27. She left us in a state of peace with the world while in the company of her family.

She was born to the late Charlie Berry and Annie Mae Grace, Apr. 21, 1921, in Blum, Texas. She married the late Harry Schlittler in 1940, and they lived together in Jacksboro, Tx. Until his death in 1973. She continued to be an active member of the Jacksboro community until moving to Edmond in 2006 to be closer to her son and his family.

Louise was a loving, nurturing, witty woman who enriched the lives of everyone with the privilege of knowing her. Known as simply “Grandmother” by her immediate family and all of their friends, she acted the part as a supportive and steady influence on the lives of everyone close to her. She was a joy to everyone, and will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

Louise is survived by her son Charles and his wife of 49 years, Ginger. She is also survived by her two grandchildren Paul and David, as well as David’s wife, Tricia. She had five great-grandchildren: Paul’s children, Daniel and Kristin; and David’s children, Ryan, Rachel, and Jackson. Her brother Pete and sister Charlsie preceded her in death.

A viewing will be held at 10:30-11:30 am.Friday at Coker Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be 2pm Friday at the Memorial Christian Church. Burial will follow in Oakwood Cemetery, where she will be laid to rest next to her beloved Harry.
