“ I haven't suffered inside like THIS since the passing of my Grandma Ruth back in 1987 and THAT is saying something for me personally, because I have witnessed MANY MANY DEATHS throughout my life as a caregiver. Maria Isabel Quintanar was not my flesh & blood, but she WAS, and forever will be, my sister in the Christian Realm which is BY FAR more valuable. (Take a moment and let that soak in what I just said...)

I have NOT met too many people in my lifetime that can compare to Maria. Maria's love and devotion to people in need was "A SPECIAL GIFT". A gift from GOD to the elderly and handicapped and I'm NOT just saying this to be saying it. I have SEEN God work thru her with my OWN eyes. She had a way of giving her all when she KNEW we were ALL being stretched way too thin with the amount of duties that were put on us when we would be shorthanded. I NEVER saw her break mentally.. Well... NEVER in the presence of those she was taking care of, anyways. She was a softhearted compassionate person that spoke softly and she KNEW "her calling." The majority of those around her that didn't TRULY know her heart or her as a person could probably "sense" her spirit... Her SOUL, but to actually know her? Well... plain and simple... They fall short of that privilege. I say that last sentence in the present tense because she is STILL here with us. Do you feel her? She IS here amongst us. I certainly feel her. She is going to be here with us for the duration of our stay in earth until we get to the other side of the veil to be amongst her and ALL of our loved ones again. After all.. she IS a caregiver and protector of those less fortunate... And THAT part of her essence will remain with US because we here left on earth ARE the less fortunate. Let us all remain as positive as we can through our grief. We HAVE to be strong for those of us who are truly suffering with this HUGE loss and we need each other to lean on. Maria would want that.

To know THIS woman was an honor. She was so sacrificial in her ways... So giving... She sacrificed a LOT for those that needed her in the nursing home environment. I didn't know her family except

Dale and Nancy, but I KNOW she loves her family because she spoke of them at work. There will never EVER be another Maria. We were ALL "HER BELOVED." 🥹
