“ One of my fondest memories of Mary was one evening me and Mike was in the yard sighting in our bows. We was in the yard between mikes and Mary's house. She come out side carrying two plates both with a slice of chocolate cake the size of the plates. And two glasses of milk. It was completely out of the blue. That was I believe the best tasting chocolate cake I have ever had. I'm not sure if she thought I was putting on about how much I liked it but she never did bring us chocolate cake again. Although I hoped for it often.
