

Melisa Sue Vanhoose

July 14, 1967 - February 13, 2020

Melisa “Missy” Sue Vanhoose was born July 14, 1967. She graduated to Heaven on February 13, 2020.

Missy was born and raised in Jacksboro, Texas where she spent most of her life. She was a medical aide and a homemaker. Missy’s joy was certainly most evident when she was helping others.

Missy had many family members she loved dearly who were waiting for her in Heaven. Those include her Mother, Faye Owen; Stepfather, Ralph Owen; Father, Gerald Vanhoose; Grandparents: Irene Vanhoose, AW Powell & Della Powell; Grandson, Brady; Niece, Kayla Kiser and several cousins.

Survivors include: Son, Matthew Boone and wife Rachel; Daughter, Christi Mackey and husband Johnny; Brothers Jeff Vanhoose, JR Owen, James Owen and wife Shelley; Sisters, Paula Kiser and husband Russell, Carla Delgado, Kathy Conner and Faith Owen. Four Grandchildren Whitney, Heather, Tyson and Paityn and many nieces and nephews. Many aunts and uncles including Emma Tullis, who was very dear to Missy’s heart.

Missy spent the last few years in Olney, Texas. The House of Mercy family and her friends nearby will greatly miss her. Missy loved Jesus. She had recently rededicated her life to Christ. She is rejoicing in Heaven with the many loved ones who have gone before her, whom she greatly missed.

A celebration of Missy’s life will be held Friday, February 28, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. in the Coker Funeral Home Chapel.

“ All my love and prayers to this family during this very sad time. Lots of fun memories with Missy from building a snowman to driving down the walking trail from the city pool to the lake and getting pulled over by Mr. Joslin and giving a ticket for driving down the walking trail...Missy was a great cook and her house always spotless. Always had a smile even when she was mad..Missy will be greatly missed..I love you Missy.

“ Melisa will be truly missed. She had a big heart and a beautiful smile. She worked hard to turn her life around and she did. She was a Christian and had made so many friends here in Olney. My self and my husband will meet our friend again. Thanksgiving and Christmas will have a empty chair. Love Bill and Wanda Ballard

“ My heart goes out to Melisa's family. I love Melisa. She was a great neighbor, a good friend and a sister in Christ. I am so proud of all she accomplished as she worked so hard to turn her life around. Her beautiful smile and big heart is heaven's gain and my loss. Until I see you again Melisa I love you.

“ I meet Melisa 10-19-2018 when she first came to the House of Mercy needing a place to stay. We had a few up and down but once she realized she was loved and we only wanted what was best for her she settled in. she started doing the program, even was a able to memorize a few bible verses (we were all so proud of her and she of herself). She always was eager to help with anything we asked. She started to walk with Christ and wore a smile all the time. She will be missed and will always be loved. Until I see you again Melisa save me a spot. I love you dear friend. No more hurt now.
